WISCONSIN AUTOMATIC DOOR NAMES COLLINS NEW SALES AND SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE

NEW BERLIN, Wis. - Mark Collins has been named a sales and service representative for Wisconsin Automatic Door.

In this position, he will assist customers with selecting and purchasing automatic doors and safety systems that are suitable for their business needs.

Collins was WAD's senior service technician from 1993-2005, and most recently was in motorcycle sales. He, his wife Cathy and their two daughters reside in Saukville, Wis.

Wisconsin Automatic Door, located at 5462 S. Westridge Drive in New Berlin, is a one-stop resource for innovative commercial entrance systems including sliding, revolving and industrial doors, and many specialty solutions. The company provides sales, installation and 24-hour service for all brands of automated entrance systems and handicapped entrances. Many of the company's products use state-of-the art technologies that deliver highly specialized functionality to optimize climate control, traffic flow and security.
